“Paint the 10th Red!”

Candidate for 10th Congressional District GOP Chairman

Campaign Update

You’ve heard it said that you can tell a lot about a person by their enemies. No where has this proven more true than with the new Attorney General of Virginia, our good friend Ken Cuccinelli. Ken (the first statewide political figure to endorse my campaign!) has been driving liberals crazy since the day after he was sworn in. Ken first took on the EPA’s intention to implement draconian regulations over carbon dioxide emissions, arguing that the information used to establish the proposed regulations were not based on current scientific information available. The proposed regulations have been promulgated without a vote by our elected representatives, and could cost Virginia businesses untold millions of dollars to comply with.

Next, Ken, followed by the Attorney General’s from a number of other states, filed suit against the Federal government over whether mandating private citizens to buy a specific private insurance product is constitutional, as a new Virginia law prohibits this mandate. The liberals have been working 24/7 trying to get a foothold on any issue they can to drag Ken through the mud. But, they forgot to check with the citizens of Virginia, who overwhelming agree with the new Attorney General in his campaign to support basic constitutional principle and representative government. Thanks for sticking up for Virginia, Ken!

We would also like to take the opportunity to congratulate our good friend and supporter, Kay Gunter of Clarke County. Kay was recently elected as the new Chairman of the Clarke County Republican Committee. Kay has been a tireless volunteer over the years in every major campaign in Northern Virginia and statewide. She was elected in 2004 and re-elected in 2008 to the State Central Committee of the Republican Party of Virginia for the 10th Congressional District. Kay is a model of the best of conservatives; passionate, articulate, knowledgeable and committed. She is a true grassroots warrior. We're honored to have her advice and hard work on our campaign.
